Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-3, 6-8, 11, and 12, drawn to adding data contained in the training symbol sequence to the beginning or end of the symbol sequence, classified in class 375, subclass 229.
 - II. Claims 4 and 9, drawn to making the length between signal bursts a whole-number multiple of a cycle of the pilot tone, classified in class 370, subclass 503.
 - III. Claims 5 and 10, drawn to making the phase difference between a transmit symbol and a training symbol be a whole-number multiple of a cycle of the pilot tone, classified in class 370, subclass 516.
 - IV. Claims 13-23, drawn to incorporating cross-talk timing information in a training symbol sequence, classified in class 370, subclass 201.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

2. Inventions I and II are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct from each other if they are shown to be separately usable. In the instant case, invention I has separate utility such as adding data contained in the training symbol sequence to the beginning or end of the symbol sequence. See MPEP § 806.05(d).
3. Inventions I and III are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct from each other if they are shown to be separately usable. In the instant case, invention I has separate utility such as adding data contained in the training symbol sequence to the beginning or end of the symbol sequence. See MPEP § 806.05(d).

4. Inventions I and IV are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct from each other if they are shown to be separately usable. In the instant case, invention I has separate utility such as adding data contained in the training symbol sequence to the beginning or end of the symbol sequence. See MPEP § 806.05(d).

5. Inventions II and III are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct from each other if they are shown to be separately usable. In the instant case, invention II has separate utility such as making the length between signal bursts a whole-number multiple of a cycle of the pilot tone. See MPEP § 806.05(d).

6. Inventions II and IV are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct from each other if they are shown to be separately usable. In the instant case, invention II has separate utility such as making the length between signal bursts a whole-number multiple of a cycle of the pilot tone. See MPEP § 806.05(d).

7. Inventions III and IV are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct from each other if they are shown to be separately usable. In the instant case, invention III has separate utility such as making the phase difference between a transmit symbol and a training symbol be a whole-number multiple of a cycle of the pilot tone. See MPEP § 806.05(d).

8. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

9. A telephone call was made to Thomas Bean on 22 January 2004 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

10. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Daniel J. Ryman whose telephone number is (703)305-6970. The examiner can normally be reached on Mon.-Fri. 7:00-5:00 with every other Friday off.
